Geneva: the Center of Diplomacy and Finance

Geneva is a leading financial capital and home to the highest number of international organizations in the world, including the United Nations, the World Trade Organization, the World Health Organization and the Red Cross.

This bustling city is home to more than 170 diplomatic missions, 39 international organizations and 119 financial institutions. With more than 400 convention halls, it is an ideal global destination for international conferences and negotiations. It is famed for international banking and luxury.

Geneva is the second-largest city in Switzerland and the most international in Europe. With an international population of +40%, 189 nationalities and three official languages, Geneva is as diverse as it is international, and while French is spoken predominantly, English is spoken almost everywhere.

With such a diverse community, it is not surprising that Geneva is home to 1,800+ multinationals and attracts talent from all over the world. Its international airport is situated just four kilometers from the city center, allowing for quick and easy travel to anywhere in Europe and across the globe.

This vibrant capital also has a rich cultural offering and plenty of activities for all to enjoy. From water sports on Lake Geneva to skiing in the Alps, Geneva is a haven for outdoor and nature enthusiasts and the perfect location to combine business with pleasure.

TOP REASONS TO STUDY AT EU

Master's Programs

The master's programs at EU Business School (EU) in Geneva are three-term, one-year full-time programs (60 ECTS) taught exclusively in English. With start dates in October, January and March, they are designed to prepare you for a specialized area of business while providing a balanced understanding of fundamental concepts.

As a master's student at EU Geneva, you will develop your business personality and hone your management skills through lectures, company visits, guest speaker sessions, conferences, seminars, individual assignments, group projects and business simulations. In small class sizes, our highly qualified faculty of academics and business professionals will share real-world experiences to provide privileged insights into the specialization of your choice. You will discuss topics integral to the modern business world and develop an innovative mindset to shape the future of business. You will complete a final business plan, a multifaceted assignment that is a culmination of your study experience.

With the successful completion of one of these nine programs, you will earn a master's degree from EU Business School Switzerland which is internationally accredited by ACBSP, IACBE, IQA and certified by eduQaa, and a university master's degree (título propio) awarded by Universidad Católica San Antonio de Murcia (UCAM) in Spain.
